

Use the pre-writing from the front of this handout to write a description of the object that hints at its symbolic qualities without using the word you chose for your feelings or ideas.